Lifelong learning and training is also about facilitating innovation and the development of new technologies and skills.

COMPETENCE SKILLS 7
Appliquer les politiques professionnelles

At present, faced with the increase in the number of older people, we are witnessing the development of policies for maintaining or in-home hospitalisation, and the development of the offer of services provided by home helpers and support structures. We are also seeing the emergence of many technological tools for health surveillance through smartphones (e-health), mobile applications for organising and managing services, etc.

COMPETENCE SKILLS 8
Travailler en équipe

To meet these challenges that are transforming the homecare profession, everyone must be aware of the challenges and opportunities of continuous learning.
